

The Past, Present, Future Indefinite (Simple) Tense

5 form

There are 3 groups of words.
Which tense do they belong to?

past

Yesterday, 2 days ago,
on 9 of May, 1945

future

In 4 weeks, soon, next Tuesday

present

Usually, every year,
on Saturday, seldom

Which of the schemes goes to

A) Past

B) Present

C) Future

tenses?

C Shall (will) + V1

A V2

B V1/V_(e)s

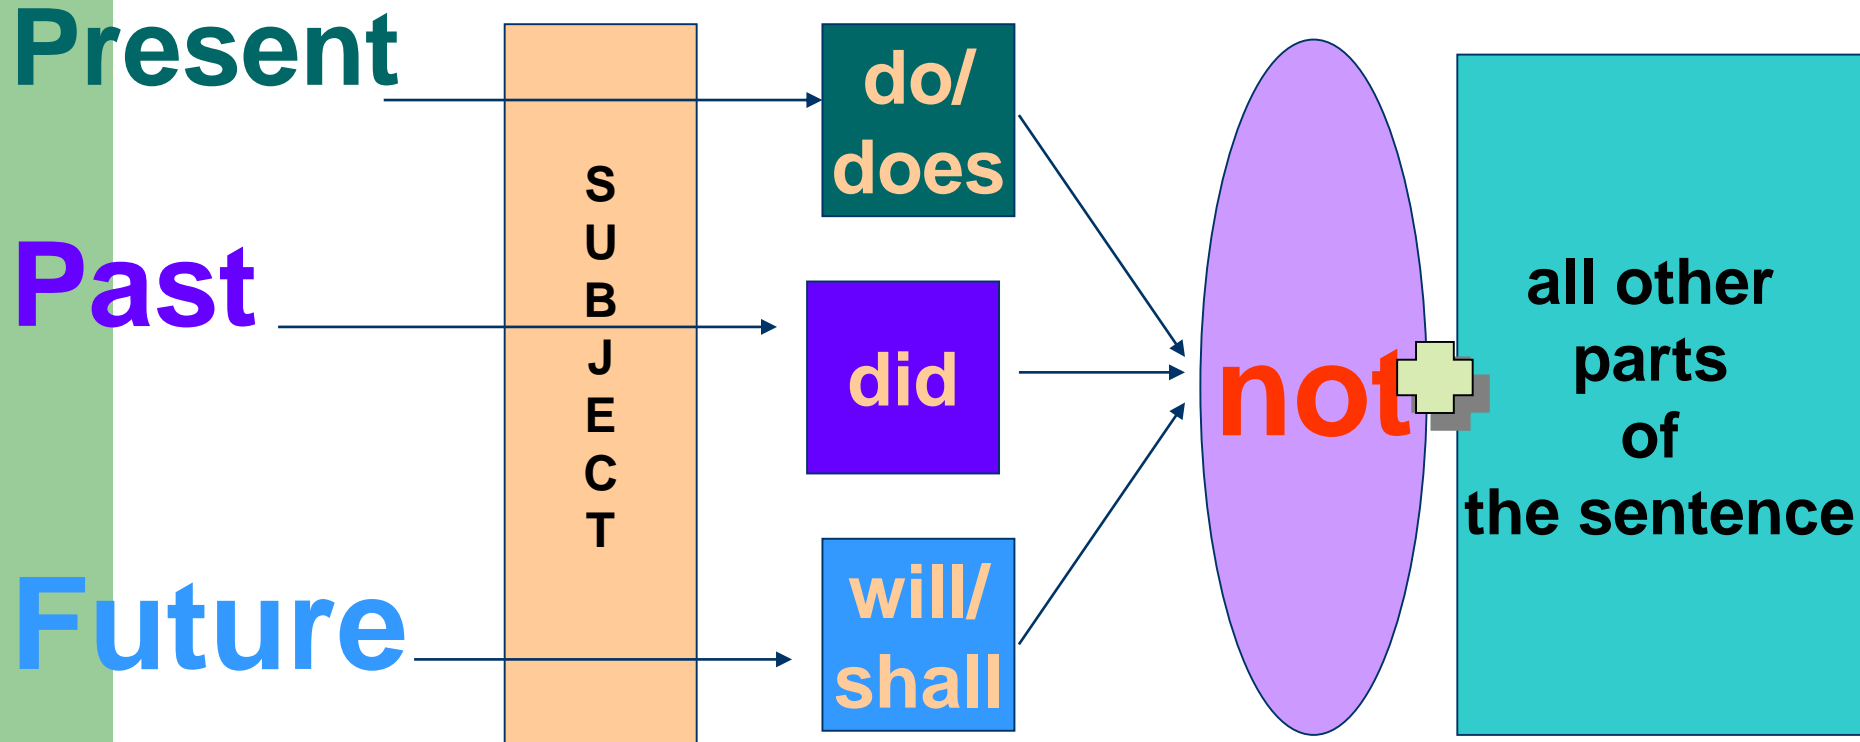

There are some sentences in different tenses. Which tense does each of them belong to?

1. My family was in Moscow in 2009.
2. My family will be at the Black sea next year.
3. My family is very friendly.

Fill in the necessary form of the verb.

- 5. I (to like) reading magazines.
- 6. There (to be) summer holidays soon.
- 7. We (to study) at the 6th form in a year.
- 8. Last weekend I (to spend) with my Dad.

Negative sentences.

Argue with me.

5. You will have examination in summer.

6. We study German in school.

7. Your grandfather will run for our school team.

8. You didn't do your homework yesterday.

Can you answer these questions?

1. Do you play snowballs every evening?
2. Will your mother come to school tomorrow?
3. Did you go to London a year ago?

Fill in the necessary verbs.

5. Where ... you go in 2 months?
6. Whom ... you meet
the day before yesterday.
7. How many mushrooms... pick up
last August?
8. How often ... you play in the sport ground?

Ask questions beginning with words in brackets.

- 4. We were in the Central Zoo last month. (Who...?)
- 5. Our class will visit veterans on the 9th of May. (Whom...?)
- 6. The pupils of our school help old people. (What people...?)